

Interpreter Sula Evry, patient Ethelete Ennis and hand therapist Becky Saunders

You couldn't be in better hands.

Rebecca J Saunders PT/CHT, known as Becky to her patients and associates is a valuable member of The Curtis National Hand Center's leading hand therapy team. She is the hand therapist for the patient in our cover story of the winter issue of Destinations, titled "Healing Ethelette's Hands So She Can Communicate With The World."

With almost 30 years of experience in hand and upper extremity therapy, she is especially interested in complex hand injuries, the extensor mechanism, tendon injuries and tendon transfers. She serves as the chair of the international committee for the American Society of Hand Therapists (ASHT) and is on the program committee for the 2016 annual meeting. Rebecca has presented research and lectured on various topics nationally and internationally for hand therapy and hand surgery meetings. She is a contributing author and the managing editor of Hand and Upper Extremity Rehabilitation: A Practical Guide, 4th edition, published in December 2015.
