Frequently Asked Questions: Auto-renewal Payroll Deductions

When will my payroll deduction start?

Jan. 11, 2019

I missed signing up for payroll deduction in 2018; can I start a recurring gift any time of the year?

Yes! Please email powertoheal@medstar.net with the deduction amount and fund designation. We will let you know what pay day your deduction will begin.

How do I stop by payroll?

To stop your payroll deduction, please email powertoheal@medstar.net. Please be advised that depending on when you submit your request, it may take a pay period to stop the deduction. For example, if you request three days before a pay day to stop your deduction, the deduction will stop the following pay day. We will let you know the exact date your deduction will stop after you contact us.

What if I want to change my fund designation later on?

Simply email powertoheal@medstar.net confirming the new fund you wish to support.

What if I want to change my per pay amount?

Simply email powertoheal@medstar.net confirming your new deduction amount.

Can I make a one-time deduction via payroll?

Unfortunately, we are unable to accommodate one-time deductions via payroll.

Where can I find my receipt for tax purposes?

Your total deduction for the year can be found on your pay stub. Please visit ePayStubs.org and click on "pay stub detail." You will see a section towards the bottom named "MedStar Health Gift."
