

Care When You Are Out of Town

When You are Out of Town:

The Alliance program does not cover you for any services when you are out of town. You are only covered for services provided in the District of Columbia.

Remember: You need to go to a provider in MedStar Family Choice's network.