A Preceptor is an expert who serves as a role model, socializer, communicator and educator for all.

Do you know a great Preceptor?

Someone who is a teacher, mentor, and/or a great resource?

Someone who generously shares experience and knowledge?

Someone who helps others be the best MedStar Georgetown Nurse they can be?

Show a preceptor how much they are appreciated by completing the attached nomination form. The deadline for nominations is Friday, March 25, 2016.

Please submit the forms to Nurse Recruitment
1st Floor - Main Building
If you have any questions, please call Kim Groner 202-444-6508.

The winner will be recognized at the Awards Luncheon during Nurses Week and will receive a monetary award!
Nurse Preceptor of the Year Nomination Form 2016

1. Nurse Nominated:

Unit:

Manager:

Has the nominee been employed at MGUH for at least one year? YES NO

2. Nominated by:

Unit:

Email:

Telephone:

Nominator’s Signature: Date:

Eligibility to receive the award: Any staff RN who is employed MGUH and meets the selection criteria, may be nominated. The candidate must be in good standing and not in the disciplinary process.

Please provide specific examples and use each category as a guide to reflect how the nominee demonstrates the following criteria (attach additional pages as needed):

How did the preceptor inspire you to learn and grow into your role as a nurse? How did he/she tailor the orientation program to meet your educational needs?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

How the preceptor was a role model of professional nursing behaviors (for example, nurses as teachers, mentor, resource, research, evidence-based practice, etc.)?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Tell a story about a way the preceptor demonstrated excellence as a preceptor.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
Submission deadline is Close of business, Friday, March 25, 2016.
Please submit the forms to Nurse Recruitment
1st Floor - Main Building.
If you have any questions, please call Kim Groner at 202-444-6508