Medication Administration Signature Sheet

Thank you for choosing MedStar for your clinical rotation. We know you have a choice in where you teach your clinical rotations, and we're pleased that you've chosen to share your time, talent and expertise with your students here.

At MedStar we strive to provide our patients with the very best and safest of care. It has been brought to our attention that the area of medication administration has been identified as being an area where errors can occur even though nursing students receive close supervision by their instructors. In order to minimize this possibility, we require the following:

- that you and your students are familiar with our patient identification policy;
- that the patient identification policy is followed every time a medication is administered;
- that you and your students are familiar with our medication administration policies and high alert medications. It is our policy that medications are administered within 30 minutes of ordered time. Actual administration time must be documented

Instructors must administer medications with their students and confirm patient identification using 2 identifiers.

- when administering medications, the eMAR is taken to the bedside for all patients except those on isolation;
- that students will utilize the hand held device to administer meds. Instructor must witness and verify each medication on the eMAR in order for medication to be shown as given;
- that medications for only one patient at a time are removed from the Pyxis and administered before the next patient's medications are removed;
- that you remain with the student administering medication throughout the entire process (including seeing patient swallow meds);
- that you and your student remain in constant communication with the nurse that has been assigned to your patients.

This document is intended to reinforce and clarify patient safety expectations at MedStar. Please don't hesitate to ask questions or request assistance. We are striving toward a mutually rewarding relationship. We consider you and your students a welcomed and important part of the patient care team.
